Income Tax Half Way Home, But Princeton's Problems Remain Unsolved

Passage by the New Jersey State Assembly of Governor Brendan Byrne's income-tax proposal, by a narrow 41-38 vote, still leaves unsolved Princeton's big tax question: will the school costs continue to be shared between Borough and Township on a per-pupil basis, or will a new law require that they be shared on a rateables basis?

The question is of agonizing concern to Borough voters: the Borough could be faced with an increase of some $400,000 in school costs if the change goes through.

Borough Mayor Robert W. Cawley, in comment on the overall Byrne tax package, that he had "mixed emotions" about passage of the income-tax bill.

"It's a necessity," he conceded, "but Princeton is being asked to contribute that little bit more that makes it too much—plus the school sharing situation."

The mayor pointed out that the only major change from the Governor Byrne's original proposal is the requirement of a referendum on the income-tax in both 1976 amd 1980. If passed by the Senate, the income-tax will go into effect on January 1 of next year.

Princeton's Joint Commission on Aging will hold a public meeting next Wednesday, July 24, at 8 p.m. in Borough Hall on taxation (and housing) in Princeton. Senator Anne Martindell will speak. Governor Byrne and Assemblymen Karl Weidel and Walter Foran, both of whom voted against the income-tax, have been invited to attend.

Per-pupil financing, in regional school districts like Princeton's, "is obviously unfair in many districts," the mayor said, "It hurts towns with a lot of kids and low rateables."

The mayor has written to Senator Stephen Wiley, author of the bill providing for rateables sharing, to protest the measure. He believes there should be special treatment for districts that exceed the state requirement of amount of rateables per pupil, and Princeton does exceed the dollar amount.

"To worry about the amount of dollar support behind each Princeton child is nonsense," the mayor said.

Like his counterpart, Township Mayor Jay Bleiman, Mayor Cawley would prefer a stretch-out, phase-in policy, if this law is passed.

Mayor Bleiman thinks a three-year maximum period would be fair, with the burden spread out in one-third bites, to lessen the effect. He said he may write to Senator Martindell to propose this, and also to Senator Wiley.

"This is only fair to Borough residents," the Township mayor said. He added that he hoped people would think over the question in the light of possible consolidation of the two Princetons.

Mayor Cawley said that he, too, will communicate with Senator Martindell.

What You'll Owe If Tax Bill Passes

This table will help you figure out how much you'll owe to New Jersey if the income-tax law is passed by the Senate and goes into effect. Your basis for figuring will be the net taxable income that you report to the Federal Internal Revenue Service.

If the taxable income is:	The tax is:
$0 to $1,000	1.5% of the taxeble income
$1,000 to $3,000	$15 plus 2.0% of excess over $1,000
$3,000 to $5,000	$55 plus 2.5% of excess over $3,000
$5,000 to $7,000	$105 plus 3.0% of excess over $5,000
$7,000 to $9,000	$165 plus 3.5% of excess over $7,000
$9,000 to $11,000	$235 plus 4.0% of excess over $9,000
$11,000 to $13,000	$315 plus 4.5% of excess over $11,000
$13,000 to $15,000	$405 plus 5.0% of excess over $13,000
$15,000 to $17,000	$505 plus 5.5% of excess over $15,000
$17,000 to $19,000	$615 plus 6.0% of excess over $17,000
$19,000 to $21,000	$735 plus 6.5% of excess over $19,000
$21,000 to $23,000	$865 plus 7.0% of excess over $21,000
$23,000 to $25,000	$1,005 plus 7.5% of excess over $23,000

ABOUT STATE ROAD...

Will It Be Fixed? Route 206--State Road--is nice and smooth from Ewing north, but from Ewing south...

Township Committee heard a report Monday night from New Jersey's Transportation Commissioner Allan Sagner, explaining that the highway's problems of drainage, which cause dangerous ice in winter, and all the other problems involved in repairing the road, would require topographical maps, detailed plans and so on. But the state is on top of the job and is working on these plans, Mr. Sagner promised.

It was just about a year ago, in August of 1973, reminisced Administrator Joseph R. Nini, that Mr. Sagner's predecessor, Commissioner Cole, wrote exactly the same thing.

"It's nice to know that Commissioners may change but secretaries go right on being the same," mused Mayor Jay Bleiman.

The state letter prompted Committee member William Sutphin to ask about the status of 92-A, the legendary by-pass around Princeton. It was washed out in the 1972 defeat of the transportation bond issue referendum, explained Mr. Nini, but Committee member Barbara Smoyer said she's heard from Nelson Thompson, a Montgomery Township official, that the by-pass had "top priority." Committee will investigate.

Water rate increase requests are now under scrutiny by Committee member Margaret Broadwater, Mayor Bleiman said. Mrs. Broadwater said she had received first quarter and 1973 annual reports from Elizabethtown Water and was beginning her study.

Fuel Prices Challenged. Fuel oil bids were awarded to Nassau Oil (for No. 1 and No. 4 grade oil) and to Lawrenceville Fuel (No. 2 and No. 6) but Mr. Sutphin challenged the formula by which prices are computed.

The base fuel oil price is the price of oil at ports on the day of delivery, as published in the Journal of Commerce. Firms like Nassau or Lawrenceville compete on the basis of add-on prices, in this case from 3¼ cents to 6 cents a gallon, depending on fuel-oil grade.

"It shouldn't be done this way," declared Mr. Sutphin, "This system means the Township has no firm price at all. We awarded a bid for police uniforms, but the price didn't hinge on the changing price of cloth."

Gordon Griffin, municipal attorney, explained that all New Jersey towns bid on oil this way.

Mrs. Broadwater asked whether the prices varied from port to port. Mr. Niai said companies didn't necessarily tell him which port their oil came from, but the Tawaship specifies New York.

Is the posted price different for different oil companies, Committee member Abbot Low Moffat wanted to know, but nobody knew. From the audience, William Barr said the posted price was for tax purposes only. "Even the Arabs sell under this price to the major oil companies," he commented. "It's an artificial price."

Mr. Sutphin and Mrs. Broadwater promised to investigate the question and perhaps protest the rule to the state.

Whizzing bicyclists in the Shopping Center are a vexation to many Township residents, reported Mrs. Smoyer. A Township ordinance forbids cyclists on the mall, but it's hard to enforce. Police Lt. Michael Lisi said the Center once paid the bill for a special officer to enforce, but did so no longer. Manpower shortage prevents the Township from more stringent enforcement, he said.

Committee passed the Snowden Lane bike path-sidewalk ordinance and allowed the Seminary to defer until December, 1977 construction of a short roadway in its Mt. Lucas housing project.

POLICE STOP CAR

Pennington Man Charged. Bruce T. Deverell, 20, 120 King George Road, Pennington, is free on $1,000 bail after being charged by Borough police with possession of a dangerous instrument (hilly club) and possession of a blank cartridge pistol.

He was stopped on Witherspoon Street by Ptl. David Lewis Saturday for a routine motor vehicle check. On the seat, police said, was a Sam Browne belt similar to those used by police. It contained a replica of a Colt revolver capable of firing blanks, a pair of handcuffs and a billy club.

Captain Theodore Lewis reported that Deverell allegedly told the officer a lot of conflicting stories including that he was a guard. When he returned to police headquareters Monday he was arrested.

THEFT ATTEMPT FAILS

At Public Library. An abortive attempt to steal a purse at the Public Library led to the arrest of a Trenton Man Thursday afternoon.

Oliver L. Starling, 33, was stopped and questioned by Ptl. David Lewis on Nassau Street near Cox's store, about the attempted theft. He was turned over to the Trenton police department after a check with the National Crime Information Center revealed that Starling was wanted in Trenton for contempt of court.

Sparling was first observed milling around by an employee of the library. When he entered an unoccupied office in the children's section, a clerk went in to see what he was doing and allegedly saw Starling standing with a woman's purse in his hand. He dropped the purse and ran outside.

Police showed pictures and one of the library employees made positive identification, Captain Theodore Lewis reported.

MORE REVENUE...

Except for Borough. Federal revenue sharing money won't exactly shower down on Princeton, but there will be more of it for the Township. The Borough gets a small cut this year.

The 1975 fiscall year allotment for the Borough will be $56,327, compared to $57,660 for 1974. The Township's share will be $49,145, compared to $48,659 a year ago.

Hopewell's allotment will be $8,176, up from $7,940, and Hopewell Township's will be $57,686, compared to $35,220 a year ago. Pennington will receive $7,838 instead of $7,521 and Lawrence, $242,186 instead of $162,016.

Two Juveniles Charged with PHS Vandalism

Two 15-year old Township youths, neither of whom had been in trouble before, have been arrested and charged with the recent rash of entries and vandalism at John Witherspoon and Princetoo High School.

The two were apprehended in the metal shop of John Witherspoon School about 4 a.m. Friday morning by Sgt. Robert Heacock, Ptl. William Potts and Ptl. John Hammond of the Township, assisted by Sgt. Thomas Michaud and Ptl. David Alston of the Borough. They were caught as the result of a new alarm system installed in the school, police said.

The two have been charged with breaking and entering and larceny and malicious damage by Township police. After being processed by Township juvenile officer Det. Anthony Pinelli, they were released in the custody of their parents pending further action by a Mercer County Juvenile Court.

Similar charges have been filed by Borough juvenile officer Douglas Watson.

Sgt. Pinelli reported that police had recovered monies taken from decks and vending machines plus an assortment of miscellaneous drills and tools that the youths had hidden in their homes. He estimated the value of the above at approximately $800.

School officials, he said, are in the process of estimating the amount of malicious damage. Police said that damage alone to the high school following a malicious spree there last week could run quite high.

The two youths have been charged with seven entries in the John Witherspoon School beginning April 13 and ending with their capture last week. The school was entered three times between June 21-30. Borough police have charged them with the entry into the high school on July 7, 8 and 10.

Had Devised Own Key. Because none of the outside doors to the schools had been forced, police believed that the intruders were in possession of keys. Not so. Det. Pinelli reported that the youths had improvised a thin piece of aluminum into a "key" which they were using to slip the locks.

Police reported the same method of operation was used each time. First slip the outside locks, then proceed to the shops to pick up tools they would need. They were in the act of gathering tools when they were interrupted by police Friday morning.

Det. Pinelli said that the youths had co-operated fully with the police in their investigation. "It was a good piece of police work," commented Chief Frederick Porter. "It took a lot of sweat off us."

"It took a lot of sweat off the schools, too," Det. Pinelli added.

MALL FIGHT CONTINUES

Water in Doubt. Citing the "unusual magnitude of questions" raised by the proposed "Hopewell Center" shopping mall, the Hopewell Township Planning Board has extended its schedule of public hearings on the project at least through next Thursday, July 25, and possibly into the month of August.

The meeting this Thursday, at 7:30 in Hopewell Valley Central High School, will center on traffic study analyses. The Rouse Company seeks to build the shopping mall at the Pennington Circle on Route 31, near the interchange of the I-295 beltway around Trenton.

posed by a group called Regional Shopping Center Concerned Citizens of Hopewell Valley. The group asserts that the large shopping center would be environmentally damaging for Hopewell Township and "economic suicide" for the City of Trenton. The citizens group has nicknamed the project the "Rouse Maul."

Last week it appeared that the group was finding some new allies. Early in the week the City Council of Trenton voted informal approval of a plan to supply the mall with 170,000 gallons of water daily from 2 to 6 a.m. to two reservoirs that would be located near the mall site. The Rouse Company would pay $20,000 a year for the water.

The citizens group, pointing to a Mercer County Planning Board study that concluded the mall could cost Trenton nearly 55 percent of its current retail business, had lobbied against Council's approval of the water request. After the Council took the vote, several Councilmen began to have a change of heart.

Water Essential. After downtown Trenton businessmen voiced their objections, Trenton Mayor Arthur Holland said he would review the approval "as a matter of courtesy" to the businessmen. "There's no question we should have checked with the business community," he was quoted as saying.

Mayor Holland sent a letter dated July 10 to Rouse Company indicating approval of the water request. He pointed out later, however, that that letter is subject to final Council approval and the result of engineering feasibility studies.

A Rouse attorney, Thomas Jamieson, said, "The July 10 letter is the only official word we have. Obviously, the center can't be constructed without water. We realize that and know its importance."

Mr. Holland also said he would seek the advice of Trenton Assistant City Attorney George Dougherty. The question could be put to a court test, the mayor said, since Trenton has supplied water in the past to developments outside the city's franchise area.

Extension Sought for 'Ailing' Shuttle-Bus Runs

Although the shuttle-bus is "far from a success," in Borough Mayor Robert W. Cawley's gloomy words, Borough and Township will, with doughty perserverance, ask the Public Utilities Commission for an extension which will take Princeton's shuttle and loop bus service another 55 days beyond July 26. That's the date the initial PUC 90-day trial period expires.

Why 55 days? Because Princeton doesn't have enough money to run the buses beyond that time. However, the request to PUC for an extension will, with cloudless optimism, reserve the right to go on for the full 90-day period.

There is still a chance of Federal funding (80 percent) for so-called "rural" routes. They would serve Plainsboro and areas like the Seminary apartments off Route One, besides places not now served by bus, like Princeton's northwest and southeast sections.

Township Mayor Jay Bleiman said this week that there is a gap—about five weeks—between the time Princeton's money runs out, and the time Federal money is available.

Speaking of Princeton's empty and echoing buses, Mayor Bleiman said, "I'd like to see bus service given a chance in September and October when the town is busier."

For a Healthy CBD. Mayor Cawley is gutsy and determined about insuring the economic future of Princeton's central business district, and he thinks the shuttle, as part of the parking solution, is linked to that future. "The key element in the future of the Central Business District is fring-lot parking," he said firmly this week at his press conference. "We've got a big stake in making it work."

Princeton must act to make the downtown CBD competitive with shopping center malls, the mayor declared, and he said that the Real Estate Research Corporation, now doing a housing feasibility study for the Planning Board, is studying this problem also.

"Merchants and residents have a compatibility of interests," Mayor Cawley continued, "if merchants suffer from shopping centers and tax receipts decline, then residents will be hurt in their own tax hills."

The CBD plan, scheduled for final action by the Planning Board this Wednesday, is "an uneasy compromise," the mayor said, between active environmentalists and people uncomfortable about parking garages on the one side, and people who are deeply concerned about Princeton's long-range commercial health, on the other.

"We're going all-out to get employees and everyone else, OUT of the center of town," the mayor emphasized. "We'll be talking to individual employers and hoping we can push the success of the shuttle."

The hoped-for population of the shuttle—it goes from Jadwin parking lot to the CBD—was about 125-130 a day. It serves, instead, about 25 people, Mayor Cawley said.

At Hopewell Valley Central High School, meanwhile, more than 100 persons showed up to hear Rouse's side of the economic feasibility question.

Under-Stored Area? The development company contested the finding that the proposed mall, which would consists of a Sears-Roebuck and Strawbridge and Clothier as major tenants, would be an economic catastrophe for other retailers in the county.

Said James W. Rouse, president of the company, "Our studies all say this is a very under-stored area. Our total investment will be $40 to $50 million. That kind of money isn't invested without the most thoughtful research." Local merchants would benefit from being near the major retailers, he added.

A real estate consultant from Chicago told the Planning Board that the Rouse mall would draw about 18 percent of the market area into its stores. "What will happen is that instead of dollars being spent outside the market area they'll be spent within the market area," the consultant said.

TRENTON PONDERS SITE

For Amphitheater. With the West Windsor Township Committee now on record in opposition to the proposed 2,500 seat Bicentennial amphitheater in the Mercer County Central Park, and threatening to sue the Park Commission if it tries to locate the outdoor theater there, Trenton officials are continuing their study of locating the project in the downtown area.

Mayor Arthur Holland said the Trenton Planning Department is studying the feasibility of a site just off the Trenton Commons area, called State Street Plaza. The site is bounded by East State, Front, Borad and Warren streets. The slope of the land down to Front Street would be suitable for an amphitheatre. Traffic and parking could be handled by Route 29 and the state office lots.

The New Jersey Historical Drama Association wants to use the amphitheater for its Bicentennial production, "In Freedom We'll Live." the $3 million facility would be used by the drama group for 10 weeks during the summer and would be available for county use at other times.

West Windsor officials oppose the project because they feel it would turn the Township into a tourist attraction, and attract unwanted traffic and commercial activities. Supporters of the project in Trenton want the am-

That tinge of brown beginning to spread across unwatered lawns, those annuals starting to wilt, both serve as reminders that measurable precipitation hasn't fallen around here for almost two weeks (Friday, July 5) The only relief in sight is one of those scattered thundarstorms, that have been scattered elsewhere of late. phitheater for the same reasons West Windsor doesn't.

West Windsor apparently doesn't care where it is located, as long as it isn't in West Windsor. The latest suggestion for the amphitheater's location was Princeton's Battlefield Park.

Trenton officials indicated they had expressed their interest in the facility to Mercer County planners who in turn would take the matter up with the Mercer County Park Commission.

PURSE SNATCHERS 3-FOR-3

In Borough. Three Borough women were the victims of pursesnatchers during the weekend.

The first incident occurred at 9:43 Saturday night when Mrs. Eleanor Wills, 6 Greenholm, was walking to her house after putting her car in the garage. A man, police said, came from around the garage up behind Mrs. Wills and pushed her to the ground, taking her pocketbook, which contained $1. The elderly victim was taken to Princeton Medical Center and treated for several injuries which she sustained in her fall.

Her attacker escaped on a bicycle. He was described as black, tall, thin, wearing a black hat with a wide brim.

About a half hour later, at 10:15, Mrs. James Geherty, 34 Tee-Ar Place, was walking in the Park Place lot when someone ran up behind her, grabbed her purse and ran north on Madison Street. She lost $53.

Sgt. Ralph Procaccino and Ptl. David Lewis searched unsuccessfully for the pursesnatcher described as black, 5-7, thin, wearing light slacks and no shirt.

Mrs. Barbara Pollack, 12 Humbert Street, was standing in front of the Prep Shop next to the Princeton Playhouse Sunday evening at 10:41 when a slender, six-foot tall black without a shirt approached her and snatched her purse containing, police said, $40 and a $444 check. He then ran off through the PMI parking lot.

Sgt. Thomas Michaud investigated.

PARKED CARS ENTERED

At Community Park Lots. The parking lots surrounding Community Park have always been a prime target for car thieves during the summer and this year is no exception.

Eileen Murphy of Trenton lost her pocketbook containing a wallet with $29 last week when a thief removed it from beneath the passenger seat. Township police said that a vent window had been forced to enter the locked car.

A purse was taken from a spare tire compartment of a station wagon owned by Janet Falcone, 24 Woodside Lane, which was parked near the tennis courts. She lost $6. Police said the contents of her purse were strewn about the car. The theft took place between 7 and 8 p.m. Thursday.

Between 5 and 6 p.m. the same day, clothing valued at $130, a $30 gold tie clasp and a portfolio of business papers were taken from a car owned by Harvey Pobiner, 29 Taylor Road, Kingston, parked in the Community Park School lot.

Ptl. James Vandermark, who investigated, found the clothing and tie clasp in a sandbox in the school playground. The portfolio was later found in a John Street gutter.

A tape deck valued at $89 was taken last week from the glove compartment of an unlocked car parked in the pool lot. Police identified the owner as Theodore Kennedy Jr. of Trenton. The glove compartment had been forced open.

Elizabeth Zingg, 195 S. Harrison Street, had her pocketbook stolen while she was sleeping at the pool. Her purse contained no money, police said, but the victim lost a $13 watch.

"The only thing I can say," remarked Chief Frederick Porter, in the wake of the weekly list of thefts at the park, "is that it is incumbent on drivers to leave their valuables at home and to make sure their car is locked.

"I don't think it is necessary to bring a large amount of money if you are going to leave it carelessly in view as a temptation to thieves. It's downright carelessness. It's a shame people can't do these things, but the temptation is there."

PARKED CAR TARGET

Of Vandals. A car parked in the drive of 101 Adams Drive had its antenna and speedometer smashed last week by vandals. A $45 camera inside was also smashed.

Police identified the owner as Rudolf F. Lehnert of the same address. The speedometer was valued at $25. The incident, investigated by Ptl. Peter Savalli, happened overnight.

Window Shattered. A rock the size of a tennis ball was thrown through a plate glass bedroom window last week of the home of Gerard Noble, 446 Riverside Drive East.

Ptl. James Vandermark investigated.

SEVEN ARE FINED

In Borough Court. Seven Princeton area residents were fined Monday by Judge Philip Carchman in Borough traffic court.

Henry A. Adelbert, 47 Tulane Street, and David Foley, 622 Princeton-Kingston Road, were each fined $15 for speeding. A U-turn violation cost Glenn T. Spellman, 62 Bainbridge Street, $25.

Others: David R. Tenny, 168 Hickory Court, $15;, red light; Paul A. Shapior, 320 Prospect Avenue, $20, late inspection; Anthony LaPlaca, 12 Hamilton Avenue, $20, careless driving; and Arthur C. Murphy, Celtis Place, Cranbary, $25, failure to yield while emerging from a private drive. Mr. Murphy was also ordered re-examined by the motor vehicle department.

PATTERSON NAMED

To Fenwick Campaign. Henry S. Patterson, former Borough mayor, will serve as Mercer County representative on the Congressional campaign committee of Republican candidate Millicent Fenwick.

Mr. Patterson supported Mrs. Fenwick's defeated rival Thomas H. Kean in the June primaries. In an announcement from her campaign headquarters, Mrs. Fenwick said that Mr. Kean would serve as her representative in Essex County. She beat him by only 83 votes.

Other county representatives for the Fifth Congressional District Republican campaign are Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen (Morris), the outgoing Congressman; State Senator Raymond H. Bateman (Somerset) and Dunellen Mayor Lawrence Anzovino (Middlesex).

FESTIVAL!

To Aid Youth Center. John Street, from Green Street to the blacktop at Clay Street, will be blocked off from 1 to 7 p.m. this Saturday for the Princeton Youth Center Community Festival. It will be a fund-raiser for the Center, and the whole town is invited.

The Motador Drill Team from Trenton will perform at 2 p.m., and at 3 p.m. the Center's own Ajile Dancers will appear. A basketball game has been scheduled from 6-7 p.m.

During the afternoon, there will be games for the kids, a pony to ride, booths offering things for sale, including food.

NEGOTIATIONS CONTINUE

Over Police Contract. The police negotiating committee of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association 130 and officials of the Borough will meet again Thursday morning in an attempt to reach an acceptable police contract for 1974.

After months of no progress, both sides met last Thursday morning following two police demonstrations in front of Borough Hall. Ptl. Bernard Lenhardt, a member of the four-man negotiation committee, reported that all areas of the contract—salary and fringe benefits—had been discussed and that the meeting had been a productive one.

"We made some progress," he said. "We're still not satisfied but it is more of a beginning than we've had in the last seven months."

He said that Administrator Robert Mooney and Police Commissioner Joseph Moore were to come back to the police Thursday morning with the answers or any decisions Council may have made in the dispute.

Mayor Robert Cawley said at his press conference Tuesday that a "couple of adjustments would be presented at the meeting."

He also reported that he had received a number of calls from persons saying they didn't approve of the police demonstrations. "I tried to turn them off," he said.

"Police do a helluva good job and I don't want our differences to get in the way of our normal day to day working relationships which are very good."

STUDENT ASSAULTED.

On College Road. Douglas Richstone, 22, of Spelman Hall, a Princeton University graduate student, was assaulted early Sunday morning as he was walking on College Road.

The victim told police that a small car drove up about 1 a.m. and one of the two occupants came up to him and asked for directions. Then for no apparent reason, police said, he struck Mr. Richstone in the face. The victim refused medical aid.

TV IS STOLEN

From Nassau St. Apartment. A television set and air conditioner with a combined value of $320 were stolen Saturday evening from the apartment of Benjamin Ortiz, 244 Nassau Street.

Returning home with a friend, Mr. Ortiz told police that he recognized a man he knows from Trenton driving away from his apartment. When he discovered his TV and air conditioner were missing he followed the susoect. He located him in Trenton, police said, but when the suspect saw Mr. Ortiz he ran away.

Det. Timothy Huizing is investigating. A rear window was broken to enter the apartment, police said.

OWN A DOG?

The Borough's new 24-hour leash law for dogs—and their owners—doesn't take effect until Thursday, August 15, so there is plenty of time for everybody to get in training. Here are they highlights:

- Your dog must be on a leash no longer than eight feet, and accompanied by and under the control of, a "responsible person" every time the dog is off your property.
- This regulation applies 24 hours, day and night.
- If somebody complains about your dog, you'll get a written notice from the health officer and, with the complainer, you'll get a hearing before the officer to decide whether your dog is a "public nuisance" or "vicious or dangerous."
- If your dog is declared "vicious," you must muzzle the animal.
- If you own a cat that wanders around vacant houses with other cats, the animal may be taken into custody. Cats don't have to be kept on a leash.
- Owners who violate the ordinance can be fined as much as $50, and no less than $5.

FARE INCREASE ASKED

By Telebus. On the other side of the parking lot from the loop and the shuttle and their problems, is Telebus with problems of its own.

"We're not at the break-even point," announced Mrs. Paul Draper, co-owner of Telebus at Township Committee Monday night. The Drapers want permission to raise their 50 cent fare to $1. They also want to be relieved of the Township requirement to operate Saturdays. The Borough does not require Saturday operation.

The $1 fare would be a maximum, Mrs. Draper explained. Possibly some kind of zone system would follow.

In a litany of financial problems, Mrs. Draper recited the uneconomic distance from Gallup Road to Herrontown—and customers have wanted to travel this route for 50 cents—the need to pay an additional driver, a jump from 19 cents to 40 cents in the price of Diesel fuel, a quantum 100 percent leap in the cost of tires since 1972 and an 80 percent increase in repair costs since last year.

"Harassment litigation" instituted against Telebus by Princeton's taxi drivers is also costly, she said ruefully and "could take years to pay for."

Committee reminded Mrs. Draper that she and her husband had never provided fact-sheets on Telebus operations, and she said she would submit them to the Transportation Commission this week.

"MEET MY OLD FRIEND, HARRY:" In Summer Intime's "Luv," Milt Manville (played by Richard Ferrguglo, center), introduces his wife Ellen (Alice White) to his "best buddy" Harry (played by Daniel Berkowitz, right).

News Of The THEATRES

"LUV"

From Summer Intime. Will Horry Berlin jump from that New York City bridge? It's a question. To be answered, of course, in "Luv," the 1964 hit comedy next on Summer Intime's summer schedule.

It will open this Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in Murray Theatre and will play this Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with an early 7:30 curtain Sunday. It's also booked for Murray Theatre the following weekend.

Dan Berkowitz, executive director of Intime, will play Harry Berlin. Harry's old college chum, Milt Manville, will be Richard Ferrugio (the Major Petkoff in "Arms and the Man" last week) and Milt's wife Ellen, will be Alice White. Only three in the case.

Robert Schmon Jr. is making his Summer Intime directorial debut with "Luv."

FOR THE KIDS!

"Winnie-the-Pooh." The world's most popular bear, Pooh himself, will be on the Murray Theatre stage in a few days in Summer Intime's 1974 children's show, "Winnie-the-Pooh."

It will be given three times: this Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 21, 22 and 23 at 2:30 p.m., and Murray Theatre is air conditioned.

Pooh will be played by Richard Ferrugio of the Summer Intime company, with Kimberly Myers as Kanga, Anne Louise Hoffman as Baby Roo, Robert Schmon as Owl, Daniel Berkowitz as Piglet, Mitchell Ivers in the key role of Christopher Robin, and all kinds of forest characters.

Anne Hoffman has designed the sets. Marie Miller is the costume designer.

CABARET AGAIN

Cole Porter. "An Evening of Cole Porter" is the offering for this Saturday's midnight cabaret in the Lower Room of Murray Theatre. It's Summer Intime's innovation for 1974. Doors open at 11:30, first-come, first-serve basis, with set-ups and coffee available throughout the cabaret.

Old Porter favorites, plus a few that are less well-known but just as witty will be performed by members of the nine-member company. They are Liz Fallo, D'Arcy Achziger, Denise Seutter, Bebe Neuwirth, Margaret Griffin, Ernie Norris, John Vennema, Alice White nnd Kimberly Myers. Don Bornsin (Triangle and P.J.&B.) will be piono, Steve Fillo will be bass.

NEXT, ON FILM

Back to 1920. Films from 1920, 1943 and 1959 will be screened next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, in Summer Intime's Summer Film Festival. All will be shown at 7:30 p.m. in McCormick Art Museum on the University campus behind Murray Theatre.

"Sherlock in Washington," the 1943 entry, stars Basil Rathbone as you-know-who, sleuthing out a spy ring in Washington. George Zucco plays the chief villain, and for people who collect such things as early appearances, there is Marjory Lord, who went on to even greater heights of glory playing Danny Thomas' wife in a long-ago TV series.

"The Mark of Zorro," is the original silent version, starring Douglas Fairbanks Sr., and featuring Noah Beery and Marguerite de la Motte. He's the shy Don Diego who becomes fierce and swashbuckling after he dons his black mask and cape to engage the forces of evil in battle.

"Suddenly Last Summer" comes from 1959. This film, based on the Tennessee Williams play, stars Katharine Hepburn, Elizabeth Taylor, Montgomery Clift, Mercedes McCambridge and Albert Decker. Joseph L. Mankiewicz is the director, and both Williams and Gore Vidal worked on the screen play.

"BRIGADOON"

At Washington Crossing. The mythical village of Brigadoon is the setting for the musical of that name, now at the Open Air Theatre, Washington Crossing under the banner of the Pennington Players. The Lerner-Loewe musical will play this Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

Jean Delgado is singing the leading role of Fiona and Herb Hunsberger is Tommy. Other

FINAL IN SERIES SET

For Children at Library. On Wednesday, July 31 at 2:30. - Summer Creative Theater will present a Folk Tale Review.

The 30-minute play which will include music and dance as well as tories, is directed by Amie Brockway who initiated Street Theater in Princeton in 1971. Folk Tale Review marks the end of a series of summer programs for children at the Public Library.

No registration is required for children ages 5 through 12 and their parents.

"CACTUS"

Street Theatre Opens. Since the romantic misadventures of the dentist in "Cactus Flower" begin right away, Street Theatre urges audiences to arrive right at 8 p.m. for this Thursday's opening of the Abe Burrows comedy on the Princeton High front lawn.

"Cactus Flower" will be given again this Friday at 8 in Van Ness Park, West Windsor; this Saturday at 8 at Riverside School and this Sunday at 8 on Palmer Square. Rain place is the Borough Hall gym.

The week-end of August 8-11, Street Theatre will produce the plays of the three winners in Street Theatre's original script contest.

In "Paradise" by Geoff Becker, Director Katie Grimm has a cast consisting of Dina Blanch, Steve Kandrac and Marc Shallcross. James Beckerman's "Garbage" is to be directed by the author. In the cast are Martha Gumbiner, Steve Kandrac, Hugo Medina, Tim Murphy, Rip Pellaton, Shelley Powsner, Debra Sullivan, Robin Walker and John Wible. The third play, "The Mysterious Case of the Maltese Peacock" by John Mochel and Lee Wittenburg, will be directed by Jon Negus. The case is Chris Brown, Tim Berwn, Lian Ferrar, Siri Huntoon, Steve Kandrac, Andrew Kerzun, Brenda Nolan, Hugo Medina, Rip Pellaton, Laurie Powsner, Mark Shallcross, Jon Tenney and John Wible.

SHAKESPEARE . . .

At Open Air Theatre. "Measure for Measure," sometimes defined as "Shakespeare's problem comedy," will open next Wednesday for a four-day run at the Open Air Theatre, Washington Crossing. It will also play Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and if any performance is rained out, the rain day will be Sunday. Curtain time is 8:30.

Producers of "Measure for Measure" are the members of Shakespeare '70, a non-profit

Only Clarks could out-Wallabee the Wallabee.

Now Wallabees are Wallabee-er than ever, with a thicker, even more generous sole. It's the same aged and toughened plantation crepe as before. There's just more of it.

That means your foot will be even more cushioned than before. There'll be more quality shoe between you and the cold hard ground.

We could have left well enough alone, but we think that if we can improve on our shoes for the sake of your feet, we will.

So we did.

The Wallabee, now with more sole than ever. Exclusively from Clarks.

corporation returning to the Open Air Theatre for the fifth season. The company is composed of semi-professional actors, teachers and student apprentices and has performed in high schools, colleges and in Trenton's Artists Showcase Theatre.

The production is under the supervision of John F. Erath and Gerald E. Guarnieri. Dr. Erath, who is staging the play, teaches Shakespeare, and Renaissance and Restoration drama at Trenton State. Mr. Guarnieri is designer for Trenton State's opera workshop, president of Pennington Players and designer at the Artists Showcase.

The cast features Marvin W. Stafford as the Duke; Colleen Smith as Isabella and John Anastasio as Angelo. Mr. Anastasio is on the staff of WHWH in Princeton.

Bill Steel will be Lucio, and Andrew Hornyak will portray Escalus. Other roles and their actors are Pompey (Charles W. Smith); The Provost (Tom Stackhouse); Claudio (Edwin Watkinson Jr.); Mistress Overdone (Susan Tappoer); Elbow (David Meyer).

Also Jack Szabo, Dale Watson, Mark Stafford, Joseph-Ann Hoffman, Donnally Miller, Rosemarie Arcieri, Bob Salyerds, Barry Coleman, Linda Stern, John Erath and Chris Erath.

Frani Cappuccio is stage manager and Barbara Dyett is her assistant. Costumes are under the direction of Pearl Guarnieri, Rosanne Miles, Susan Jeffay, Paula Mosher and Sister Mary Ancilla.

JOINT RECITAL SET

For Next Wednesday. A violin and piano recital will be given by Mr. Glen Hadsell and Dr. Arnold Popkin at 8 p.m. on Wednesday , July 24, at the Trenton Times Building in Trenton.

Mr. Hadsell is from Omaha, Nebraska, and was soloist with several midwest symphony orchestras. Mr. Hadsell has lived in Trenton for the past three years, and has taught string instruments in public schools in Trenton, Edison and Neshaminy, Pa. He is about to receive his Master of Arts in Violin and Conducting from Trenton State College.

Dr. Popkin is a native of Trenton, and has lived in Princeton for the last eight years. He began studying piano at age 3 and violin at age 7. He was concertmaster and piano soloist with the Trenton Youth Symphony. His teachers have included Eleanor Sokoloff of Philadelphia and recently Mathilde McKinney of Princeton. He is a member of the Music Club of Princeton and is active is local chamber music circles.

Professionally, Dr. Popkin received his B.A. and M.D. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania, and did his internship and residency in ophthalmology at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. He now has offices in Hightstown and Freehold, and is head of the Department of Ophthalmology at Princeton Hospital.

The program will feature Beethoven's Kreutzer Sonata, and will also include works by Handel, Martinu, Kreisler, and Bartok.

WAGNER TO CONDUCT

Public Invited. Roger Wagner, founder of the internationally acclaimed Roger Wagner Chorale, will conduct a performance of Renaissance choral music at Westminster Choir College next Thursday at 3:30 p.m.

The concert will be the highlight of a week-long workshop directed by Dr. Wagner at the Choir College campus. The workshop is one of the features of this summer's Westminster Summer Session. Dr. Wagner, a leading authority in Renaissance music and Gregorian chant interpretation, has been leading the workshop in the rehearsal, performance and study of Renaissance choral literature.

On the program next Thursday, will be works by Palestrina, Monteverdi and Giovanni Gabrieli, and Davalli's Missa Concertata for instruments and voices. The public is invited to attend, and the concert is free.

FROM AUSTRIA

Choir to Sing. The Tiroler Motettenchor, (Tyrol Motet Choir), from Woergl, Austria, will sing Renaissance and contemporary music at a concert in Bristol chapel, Westminster Choir College next Monday, at 8:30 p.m. The group will be conducted by Georg Foidl. The public is invited to attend free of charge.

The choir is currently making its first tour of the United States. It has performed extensively in Europe since it was founded in 1958, and won first prize at the International Choral Contest in Newcastle, England in 1963. The Motet Choir has also appeared at the Salzburg Festival and at numerous public functions of the Austrian government.

The choir's concert at Westminster will be their first performance in America. The group will sing works by Josquin des Pres, Palestrina and Hassler, and contemporary compositions by Hindemith, Kodaly and Orff.

"PLAZA SUITE"

At Theatre-by-the-Lake. Neil Simon's three-tier play, "Plaza Suite," will open at Hightstown's Theatre-by-the-Lake next Friday, July 26, playing again that Saturday and Sunday. Curtain time is 8:30, except for Sunday, which will have an early 7:30 curtain.

Theatre-by-the-Lake is in Geiger-Reeves Hall on the Peddie School campus, South Main Street, Hightstown.

"Plaza Suite" is the story of three nights in Suite 719 of the Plaza Hotel in New York and each night is its own vignette, with its own characters and plot.

Act one has Karen and Sam spending the night of their 24th anniversary in the same hotel suite where they spent their wedding night, only this time it's different. Act two has a famous Hollywood producer who has invited his high-school sweetheart from Tenafly to meet him in suite 719 and "reminisce." He has only 90 minutes before a business appointment in that very room, and so . . . Act three introduces Mimsey, due to be married in a few minutes downstairs in The Green Room. Only she has locked herself in the bathroom and refuses to come out.

In the cast are Drusilla Hoge, John Sauerman, Robert Watson, Bath Kalikoff, Jake Tarr, Amie Brockway, Ralph Iorio, Ken Alcorn and Jonathan Fox.

IT'S NEW To Us

OUT OF RETIREMENT

...Into The Strawberry Patch. After many years of owning a women's sportswear store in California, Mrs. Grace Graham decided to retire near her daughters and moved to Pennington. However, being full of energy she found this unsatisfactory and soon began working part-time at The Reynolds Shop.

Now five years later Mrs. Graham has once again started a shop of her own, this time a gift shop. Called The Strawberry Patch and located in a pale pink building on West Delaware Avenue in Pennington, it is a delightful and friendly small store filled with reasonably priced gifts that should fill the bill for most any occasion.

The shop features many hand-made gifts by Mrs. Graham and others. We liked a patchwork pillow of pastel prints that has been trimmed with a ruffled edge, $8.50; the "Jones Girls" dolls with embroidered faces, yarn braids, sweet long dresses and lace hats, $7; and the heavy quilted butterfly potholders, $2.

STRAWBERRY DELIGHTS: This pretty hostess pinafore and cabinet full of useful house presents represent only one section of The Strawberry Patch, a new gift shop in Pennington specializing in hand-made and reasonably priced gifts for all occasions.

Mrs. Graham plans to offer custom pillows and aprons. In fact she will have her sewing can easily zip them up for machine in the store so she people.

Strawberries have always been a love of Mrs. Graham's and many of the gifts reflect this. Sitting on a table we saw red woven placemats shaped like strawberries, plastic trays and glasses with a strawberry print, a set of hand-hemmed pale pink napkins with a strawberry print, and a basket filled with small white flowers and strawberries.

A gaily printed heavy canvas tote and laundry bag are also part of the strawberry parade, $6 and $8 respectively.

Gifts For Any Occasion. When buying for her new store, Mrs. Graham has tried to think in terms of the gifts you might need, and the store's arrangement reflects this. Immediately upon entering there is a children's corner where we saw felt lion, frog, horse and clown puppets, $2.50, and a set of Sesame Street Muppets (also puppets) with yarn hair, large eyes and cloth bodies, $4.75.

This corner also has hand-made bibs that have been appliqued with a small printed duck, and with the bib comes a matching stuffed duck for the child to play with--an unusual small baby present, $3.

Father has a table too and here there are bar accessories; a heavy wire barbecue brush with a scraper, $3.50; and hand-made one-of-a-kind ties by Medora, $7.50.

For a wedding you might choose the pretty bright blue round casserole from France or a white cow pitcher decorated with small blue flowers, $5. Or if you need a last minute hostess gift, we loved a tall white bamboo flower holder. It comes square or round and is far more impressive than its $2.50 price tag.

Most gifts are probably given to women, and there is a nice range at The Strawberry Patch. A child could easily afford the mason jar salt and pepper set from the kitchen corner, $1.75, or one of the small ceramic flower pots that have been glazed in muted tones, $1.50.

Somewhat larger thoughts for the lady in your life include on of the lined burlap tote bags that have been appliqued with a flower cart, cardinal, strawberry and several other patterns; or the pretty pink gingham hostess pinafore with wide eyelet trim around the arms, $12.

The Strawberry Patch is at 21 West Delaware Avenue in Pennington (where Up To You was located before it joined The Reynolds Shop), and the hours are 10 to 5 Tuesday through Saturday.

NEW STORE OPENS

In Montgomery Shopping Center. While all businessmen hope for growth and expansion, many never see their dreams realized. Ed Samojednik, a former builder, has been one of the lucky ones.

Several years ago he left the building field to begin a retail business in Green Brook. This became so successful that June 1 he opened a second store -- The Moose Bay Trading Company at the Montgomery Shopping Center.

The store is a trading company in the sense that it does not limit itself to a specific category of merchandise. Mr. Samojednik has changed his emphasis during the past few years and he is always willing to try something new if he can buy it at a good price.

Waterbeds were Mr. Samojednik's first venture, and they continue as an integral part of his store. These beds are heated, lump-free and adjustable to just the firmness you find most comfortable. There is also an aqua-air mattress that fits on top of conventional box springs, -- a king size mattress costs $180.

Not long ago Moose Bay Trading Company added several lines of unpainted furniture. While most of it is smoothly sanded pine, there is a new line of hardwoods by Laurelcraft. We saw every conceivable piece—a deacon's bench with a storage seat, a 60-inch bar with a choice of stools, a child's captain's chair and a dry sink, $14.95 to $225.

Other selections include a spinning wheel, corner china cabinets, hutches, drop-leaf tables, an etagere, a windsor rocker, and a line of campaign furniture. As an extra, Mr. Samojednik has stocked a line of brushes, stains and paints to help you finish whatever piece you choose.

Wicker Furnitore. Probably the most exciting aspect of the store and a welcome addition to the Princeton area is the broad choice of wicker furniture. There are some wonderful pieces such as an elephant table, a hanging chair, a bamboo rocker and a handsome chest with brass corners and handles.

We also saw a very reasonably priced porch set (the settee is $64.95), and several delightful headboards in a peacock, Victorian heart or peel arch design. There is a wastepaper basket you can thread with ribbon, $4; a sturdy laundry basket, $7; and Victorian drum stools from $14.95.

Spaced carefully throughout the store are many unexpected extras such as a striped Colombian family hammock; bean bag chairs in four colors and two sizes, $39.95 and $59.95; grass or woven cord rugs that can be ordered to size; and Quoddy moccasins.

Made in Maine, these moccasins come in styles for every family member for indoor or outdoor wear. For instance there are plush lined suede ones, a boat moccasin with a white non-skid sole, deerskin infant booties, and boots with a fringe ring around the ankle, $10 to $26.

Moose Bay Trading Company is open seven days a week. Monday through Saturday the store is open from 10 until 6 with Thursday and Friday evening hours until 9, and on Sunday the hours are from 12 to 5.

PRINCE

The Black Windmill. An occasionally involving espionage mystery, the Black Windmill centers on a British secret agent (Michael Caine) who searches out his son's kidnappers while suspected of engineering the crime by his own superiors. The film eventually runs out of dramatic steam, however, and is ultimately anticlimactic.

Caine is excellent in a cold-blooded portrayal of a professional agent forced to turn renegade when his superiors refuse to hand over a ransom of diamonds after his son is kidnapped by a desperate, IRA gun-running mob.

Forced to steal the ransom himself, Caine is pursued by British Intelligence agents from London to Paris and back again, avoiding a collection of fates and eventually retrieving both his son and the identity of the infiltrated agent in his bureau.

Donald Pleasence, a fine English actor, is a standout as Caine's mistrusting, fussy superior.

PLAYHOUSE

The Conversation: A timely and excellent thriller by Francis Ford Coppola centering on a professional evesdropper who becomes irrevocably involved in an assignment after a lifetime of moral detachment.

In addition to a thriller with a nerve shattering climax. Conversation is a ruthless study about "responsibility" in these Watergate times. Gene Hackman gives one of his best performances as the conflict-torn surveillance expert, whose disjointed scruples make stealing a newspaper more of a sin than gathering information that indirectly leads to several murders, caught in a sudden crisis of conscience.

Ostensibly hired on a matter of marital infidelity, Hackman gradually realizes that a murder is linked to the tapes he has collected. Suddenly racked by guilt and unable to remain passive, Hackman, who has a reputation as the top tapper in his field, pieces his information together and winds up bugging the indicted murderer. Except there is a shattering climatic twist--reminiscent of classic Hitchcock--that the victim is not the one whom Hackman logically assumed.

Much of the film's power--and it is a gripping film--stems from Hackman's beautifully complex understated performance. Other fine performances come from Allen Garfield as Hackman's closest competitor; Elizabe MacRae as a floozy w seduces Hackman, and T Garr as a mistress kept in dark.

With an unflashy visu sense and controlled weavi of character and action, C pola has succeeded in evok a haunting vision Kafkaesque menace.

HERE COMES THE BRICKLIN: This uniquely designed sportster, the Bricklin will be on display soon at Z & W Mazda on Route 206. Z & W has been named the dealer for this area for the Bricklin which accents safety and is being hailed as the first car by an independent U.S. automaker to hit the market in 28 years. Story this page.

BUSINESS In Princeton

Z & W MAZDA NAMED

As Area Bricklin Dealer. Z & W Mazda on Route 206, has been named as the area authorized dealer for the Bricklin, a uniquely designed, automobile--the first new car by an independent domestic automaker to invade the U.S. market in 28 years.

Mel Zentner, owner of Z & W, said that he expects to have a Bricklin in his showroom by the end of the month. Called the safest and most advanced production car ever built, the Bricklin is featured in this month's issue of Car and Driver Magazine.

The Bricklin is powered by a 360-cubic inch, four-barrel carburetor engine with a choice of automatic or four-speed manual transmission. Because of its styling and weight (3,520 pounds) gasoline mileage for average driving is reported to be nearly 20 miles per gallon. It will sell in the $6,000 range.

The accent is on safety and some of the Bricklin's accident protection features are:

An unusual bumper system designed to withstand impacts in excess of federal safety standards; a perimeter box steel frame that gives four sided energy absorption instead of the conventional, three-sided U frame; unitized acrylic body which, unlike sheet metal, won't crumble or radiate damage; integral roll cage protection and individually enclosed engine and fuel tank.

Other novel Bricklin features include gullwing doors, no engine grill, no exterior chrome, breathable suede interior, European instrument panel and improved roadability by placing the engine six inches back of the standard location.

Offered as standard equipment are air conditioning (accomplished by underneath spoilers) AM-FM stereo, power steering, power disc brakes, tilt steering wheel, tinted glass, twin outside mirrors, carpeting, radial tires and mag wheels.

The car is 178 inches long, 67 inches wide and 48 inches high. It has a wheelbase of 96 inches. Its manufacturer--General Vehicle Inc.--believes the acrylic Bricklin body may revolutionize automaking. Besides its safety advantages, the pliable material won't fade, flake, peel or corrode. In addition, it is color impregnated, permitting scratches to be buffed out by hand.

Production is currently in progress in St. John, New Brunswick, Canada. General Vehicle expects to be producing Bricklins at the rate of 1,000 a month by October and 100,000 annually in the future after a second production plant is built in the United States. Initially, marketing of the car will be limited to the Northeastern states.

Man Behind the car. The Bricklin is the culmination of a dream entertained since 1971 by 35-year old Malcolm Bricklin, who became a self-made millionaire in his early 20s

After conceiving of the nationwide Handyman hardware store franchise system in 1959, Bricklin turned to automobiles. In 1968 he successfully introduced Subaru to the U.S. but in 1971 he decided to devote full attention to creating his own car.

A prototype Bricklin was completed in 1972. Bricklin then invited a group of veteran Detroit automobile executives to mastermind the transformation into a production reality.

Next, a General Vehicle research and development facility was founded in Detroit. Before long, more than 200 experienced automobile men from GM, Ford, Chrysler, American Motors and Renault USA had joined in the challenge.

NET INCOME UP

At Jersey National. The first half earnings report of New Jersey National Corporation of Trenton, parent company of New Jersey National Bank of Princeton, shows net income up four percent over 1973 and a slight dip in earnings per share. Deposits had increased.

The bank reported net income of $3,494,222 for the first six months of 1974. Income per share was $1.99 on average shares outstanding of 1,755,184; income for the previous year was $2.03 on average shares of 1,649,773. Deposits were $671,231,536 at midyear, an increase of $17,398,191 over midyear 1973.

New Jersey National Corporation, one of the state's largest bank holding companies, is also parent corporation of New Jersey National Bank; New Jersey National Bank-Delaware Valley; New Jersey National Leasing Corporation; and Underwood Mortgage and Title Company.

Richard G. Macgill, board chairman of the corporation, said, "our banking and non-banking subsidiaries are, we believe, well positioned in terms of capital, liquidity and quality of loan portfolio to maximize the earnings potential inherent in anticipated changes in the general economy during the last half of 1974."

Yellow Pages Representative

"Why you shouldn't write your own Yellow Pages advertising."

Like the apple perched in Eve's outstretched palm, there's something irresistible about the urge to write your own Yellow Pages advertisement. Your name, address, phone number, plus two or three words designed to endear you to your customers. It seems so easy to bring business your way.

But does your instant ad say enough?

Maybe yes and maybe no.

Our experience has turned up some interesting items about Yellow Pages advertising. Including a list of facts your customers will be looking for as they turn to the page you're on. Making this information part of your ad can really pay off. It has for others.

Because the required information changes somewhat for different businesses, your Yellow Pages representative will be happy to work along with you in developing a hard-working advertisement tailored to your situation. He knows what your customers will be looking for, so why not take advantage of his services?

News Of The CHURCHES

WITNESSES TO CONVENE

In Camden. About 60 delegates will represent the Princeton congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses at the district convention in Camden which runs Thursday through Sunday. John Janzen, presiding minister of the Princeton congregation, said that 19,000 delegates are expected to attend the Camden meeting, which is one of 85 district conventions planned throughout the United States and Canada this year.

"The combined attendance is expected to reach nearly one million persons this year. Young and old, family groups and even the infirm will be there," Mr. Janzen said. The highlight of the convention program will he the public discourse on the subject "Human Plans Failing as God's Purpose Succeeds."

A baptism service will also be featured. Last year, 55,775 were baptized in the United States as Jehovah's Witnesses. This represents 10 percent of the total U. S. membership in only one year.

Mr. Janzen said there are now 31,850 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses around the world. "At a time when church attendance is declining and clergymen express concern about a lack of interest in religion, Jehovah's Witnesses are expanding as never before," he said.

In explaining his reasons why the growth is taking place, Mr. Janzen said the Witnesses' adherence to Biblical principles of morals, conduct and behavior set them apart from many religions in a time of change in life style and moral attitudes. "We believe in imitating Jesus Christ and his life style and practicing religion based firmly on God's Word," he said.

CHURCH SCHEDULES SET

For Summer Months. Several area churches have forwarded information on their activities for the remainder of the summer.

Nassau Presbyterian Church, which is holding one service at 10 each Sunday during the summer, has scheduled the following preachers: July 21, William L. Tucker, pastor emeritus, Palmer Square; July 28, Wallace M. Alston Jr., Palmer Square; August 4, Ernest Gordoo, Dean of the University Chapel, Chambers Street; August 11, W. Robert Martin, director of the Fund for Theological Education, Chambers Street; August 18, Mac C. Wells, Chambers Street; August 25, W. J. Beeners, Princeton Theological Seminary, Chambers Street.

The First Presbyterian Church of Dutch Neck, South Mill and Village roads in Princeton Junction, is worshipping only at 9:30 during the summer. The schedule: July 21, the Rev. David Blackburn; July 28, Rev. Blackburn; August 4, Rev. Blackburn; August 11, the Rev. James Weaver, "Esther—Loyalty to God Among Believers"; August 18, Rev. Weaver, "Nehemiah and Ezra—Starting Out Again"; and August 25, Rev. Weaver, "Daniel—Steadfast Faith in Time of Great Adversity."

Princeton's Quaker Meeting is gathering at 9:30 only during the summer months. The place is the Stony Brook Meetinghouse on Quaker Road. The 11 o'clock meeting will resume September 8.

The Princeton United Methodist Church, located at Nassau and Vandeventer Streets, has also amended its schedule for the summer. Sunday worship is at 10 and church school has been suspended.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Maria B. Cottini, 82, of 2 Spruce Lane, died July 14 at Gorgas Hospital, Ancon, in the Panama Canal Zone. For 20 years prior to her retirement she had worked for the French Shop and Elise Goupil Dresses.

Born in Zavattarello, P. di Pavia, Italy, she had lived in Princeton since 1913. She was a member of St. Paul's Roman Catholic Church and of the Altar-Rosary Society.

She travelled extensively in the past 10 years, living in Rome and Milan, Italy; Paris; and Fort Amador, Panama Canal Zone.

Surviving are three daughters, Miss Luisa Angela Cottini of Fort Amador, Miss Alexandra Cottini of Princeton and Mrs. Julia Celesta Dorsey of Yardville; three sisters, Mrs. Giulia B. Marioli, Mrs. Assunta B. Perelli and Miss Clothilde Bottiglione, all of Zavattarello; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Private burial will be in St. Paul's Cemetery under the direction of the Kimble Funeral Home. A memorial Mass will be held Monday at 9:30 a.m. in St. Paul's. Contributions may be made to St. Paul's Church.

Morris Cahn, 88, of 11 Madison Street, died July 10 in the Princeton Medical Center. He retired in 1969 after working 23 years as manager of Viedt's Restaurant.

Born in New York, he lived in Princeton for 30 years. After the closing of Viedt's he worked part-time at the Nassau Quality Market on Nassau Street, until it closed last year.

Surviving are his wife, Mary Ann Groom Cahn; one son, Harry L. Cahn of Tampa, Florida; and one sister, Mrs. Emma Staffens of Wilmington, Delaware.

Services were private. Contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Fred W. VanLiew, 73, of Mount Rose-Rocky Hill Road, Hopewell, died July 12 at the Foot Hill Nursing Home in Neshanic. He was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church of Hopewell.

Surviving are his wife, Estella VanLiew; three sons, Dennis P., Fred S. and Harold, all of Hopewell; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held in Hopewell, with the Rev. Bruce R. Pollen officiating. Burial was in Neshanic Cemetery. Contributions may be made to the Heart Fund or American Cancer Society.

Neilson C. Searles, 79, of Denow Road, Lawrenceville, died July 10 in Mercer Medical Center. He retired in 1961 as farm manager of the New Jersey Psychiatric Hospital in Trenton.

Born in New York, he served in the Army in World War I and was a charter member of Ewing Post No. 314 of the American Legion. A gradoate of Alfred University, he was also a member of the Mercer County Barracks 1895 World War I veterans and of the West Trenton Presbyterian Church.

He was the husband of the late Grace Cheeseman Searles.

Surviving are a son, William J. of Deer Park, Long Island; a daughter, Mrs. Donald G. Field of Lawrenceville; a sister, Mrs. Marion Crowder of Romney, W. Va.; and five grandchildren.

The funeral was held in the West Trenton Presbyterian Church. Interment was in Ewing Cemetery.

Ideas for Summer Reading from Public Library

Adults

Wiggle your toes in the sand on some air-conditioned beach and read Studs Terkel's 'Working: People Talk About What They do All Day and What They Think of While They're Doing it." THAT should make you glad you're on vacation!

It's one of the Princeton Public Library's ideas for vacation reading. The popular rabbit thing, "Watership Down" is also on the recommended list, in case you haven't caught the rabbit yet. It's the one by Richard Adams about the two rabbits who lead their tribe+or whatever it is that rabbits have—on a dangerous odyssey. It's had some feminist criticism, by the way, because of the male-chauvinist-pig—er, rabbit—way it is said to treat female rabbits.

Princeton being what it is, you'll never find its public library going off the frivolous deep end on vacation reading. Other adult selections are "Alive," the account by Piers Paul Read of the Andes survivors who turned to cannibalism to keep alive; Jan Van de Weterling's "The Empty Mirror," an account of his 18 months in a Zen monastery, coupled with Robert Pirsig's "Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance," the philosophical autobiography of a man rescued from the edge of mental breakdown, and Lynn Caine's "Widow," a true story about what it's like to be one.

For a little light reading, there's James Baldwin's novel "If Beale Street Could Talk," in which two young black people struggle against uneven odds, and A. G. Mojtabai's novel "Mundome," described as "a quiet and powerful psychological novel about a young schizophrenic.

Jean Plaidy's "The Goldsmith's Wife," authentic historical fiction about Jane Shore, mistress of Edward IV of England, is about as racy as the library gets. If you're addicted to paperback Gothic novels, better hide them in the library's 20 cent white plastic shopping bag.

Children

Even if you're only four, the Princeton Public Library has a book for you this summer. It might be June Jordan's "Fannie Lou Hamer," about a small black girl who grows into a leader of her people (up to age 8), or Thomas P. Lewis' "The Dragon Kite," about the day Kesang's parents take him to the city to search for the Great Dragon (up to age 7), or "Marie Louise and Christophe" about a brown mongoose and a spotted snake who are friends (up to 7).

Older readers—as young as 12, and on up to great-grandma—are invited to read "Watership Down," the book about the rabbits' journey. It's been compared to Tolkien; how's THAT for a teaser?

"Deenie" (by Judy Blume) is about a girl who says "Wear a brace on my back? But it's awful; it's ugly and my friends will find out! I won't!". It's for ages eight to 12.

The 9-14 age group will enjoy "The Court of the Stone Children," by Eleanor Cameron. It's the 1974 winner of the National Book Award for Children, and the teaser from the library says "If the girl in the painting talks, and her father knew Napolean, then she must be . . .a ghost!"

And "Greenwitch," by Susan Cooper, a sequel to "The Dark is Rising," in which Stanton and the Old Ones may once again have to confront the powers of darkness.

In "A Proud Taste for Scarlet and Miniver," E. L. Konigsberg writes of Eleanor who, having been queen of both England and France, waits impatiently to find out whether her husband will be allowed to join her in Heaven or whether he will go—elsewhere. This book, also, is for ages 9-14.

For pre-readers, or people who would just rather be read to, the library has John Counts and his story-telling hour.

CLASSES OFFERED

By YWCA In Swimming. The Princeton YWCA will offer several special swimming classes daily from August 5-16.

A concentrated two-week course for girls four to five will be held from 10:30 to 11 in the morning. A course for girls six through high school age will be held from 11 to 11:45. Red Cross instruction levels will be included for beginners, advanced beginners and intermediate.

Those interested should register weekdays at the Y office on Avalon Place. Enrollment is limited and YWCA membership is required.

ANNUAL CARNIVAL SET

By West Windsor Firemen. The fourth annual carnival of the West Windsor Volunteer Fire Company No. 1 will be held across from the West Windsor-Plainsboro High School from 6 to 11 p.m. July 298 through August 3.

More than 25 rides, games and other features will appeal to all groups from toddlers on up. A wide variety of food will be available from the carnival kitchen and refreshment stands. Admission is free.

RUMMAGE SALE SET

Twin W Squad to Benefit. The Twin W First Aid Squad Inc. of West Windsor Township will hold its Annual Rummage Sale Saturday from 10 to 4 at the corner of the Clarksville Road and the Princeton-Hightstown Road in Princeton Junction. Rain date will he Sunday. The sale will feature furniture, household goods and other useful items.

Those wishing to donate articles for the sale should call Louise Canning at 799-0577 or Rita Glatz at 799-1920. All proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Twin W First Aid Squad's work for the community.

Aid Course Offered. Tommie Hawthorne and Gwen Rigg of the Twin W Squad, will teach the American Red Cross Standard First Aid course at Mrs. Rigg's home, 97 Hightstown Road, Princeton Junction.

They are planning to start the course on Monday at 10 a.m. A convenient schedule will be worked out to cover the ten hours required by the course. Anyone interested should call Mrs. Hawthorne at 799-1834 or Mrs. Rigg at 799-0384.

RATE RISE ASKED

By Water Company. Elizabethtown Water Co., which serves Princeton, is asking for a rate increase to provide approximately 19 per cent more revenue. Requested rates are estimated by the company to increase water costs by about 23 cents a week for the average family.

The application must be approved by the board of Public Utility Commissioners before it becomes effective. Since it normally takes the Board several months to study a rate case and render a final decision, the company has asked for an interim increase of about 9 per cent to become effective on or before Sept. 1.

The company says pumping costs have risen 34 per cent over the past year due to

Swimmer's Ear

All it takes is one dunk in the swimming pool and whammo—Swimmer's Ear.

It means that water has lodged in the ear canal. Kids especially are troubled by Swimmer's Ear because their ear canals are narrow and it's easier for water to get trapped in there.

Result: an ear-ache.

Swimmers who use pools are especially vulnerable because even the most careful chemical treatment of a pool doesn't eliminate all bacteria.

Dr. Benjamin Silverman, attending pediatrician at the Princeton Medical Center, suggests two things:

● 1. Make sure ears are relatively free of wax. Wax build-up helps trap the water.

● 2. At the end of a day of swimming, fill a medicine dropper half full of plain rubbing alcohol. Tilt the head, and hold the dropper just at the ear opening—not in the canal.

Let the alcohol run into the ear, then tilt the head the other way so it can run out again. Alcohol helps the water flow out. Do this, of course, with both ears.

If you have a pain in your ear, don't swim until a doctor has checked out the ear.

spiralling costs for electricity and diesel fuel, and interest costs are up 22 per cent. Other operating expenses are rising at a rapid rate.

The new rates would apply to the 40 communities in Union, Somerset, Middlesex, Hunterdon and Mercer counties that are served by Elizabethtown.

VOLUME 18 DUE

On Wilson Papers. Woodrow Wilson's proposed construction of a quadrangle at Princeton University in which all undergraduates would live and eat, source of a wide controversy here three generations ago, is detailed in the seventeenth volume of The papers of Woodrow Wilson, published recently by Princeton University Press.

Covering the years 1907 and early 1908, the book is the most recent in the series edited by Dr. Arthur S. Link, Edwards Professor of American History at Princeton and Director, Papers of Woodrow Wilson.

The then-Princeton president also began taking serious suggestions that he was good presidential timber, speaking publicly on more occasions and privately preparing a credo for a group of conservative New York Democrats who were presumably interested in him as the Democratic presidential nominee in 1908.

Volume 18, due for publication this autumn, moves readers into 1909, reflecting Wilson's remarkably busy life as a public lecturer, educator, administrator, political scientist, and prolific correspondent.

In University affairs during this period, Wilson continued to oversee expansion and won the first victory in another controversy, this one involving location of the graduate college.

CLARIFICATION

In last week's story on expansion plans for the Princeton Medical Center, it was stated that no one from the Township Zoning Board appeared at the Planning Board meeting when the Center presented its plans. Golda Gottlieb, a member of the Planning Board, is also an alternate member of the Township Zoning Board and she was present as a Planning Board member.

30TH YEAR MARKED

By Quarterly Review. One of the country's outstanding "little magazines," whose editors brought it with them to Princeton University six years ago, is marking its 30th anniversary this year with publication of two retrospective issues.

The "Quarterly Review of Literature," edited by Theodore and Renee Weiss, 26 Haslet Avenue, will be displaying in the two volumes--one devoted to poetry, the other to prose--some of the reasons for its importance to the American literary scene since World War II. They will offer, in the view of one observer, "a good representation of what creative writing has been up to over the past thirty years."

Theodore Weiss is Professor of English and Creative Writing at Princeton, and he and his wife Renee, a musician and writer, have edited QRL since 1944. One of the oldest of the so-called little magazines, it has followed them to his various teaching posts--from the University of North Carolina, to Yale in 1946 then to Bard two years later, and to Princeton in 1968. And although it has always issued from a campus, the Weisses stress that it is a megazine of poetry and fiction, not an academic review.

QRL has always been, in

Professor Weiss words, "mindful of its obligation to international literary matter," and has published much European prose and poetry in translation--works by such authors as Lorca, Seferis (the Nobel laureate), Hermann Broch, Solzhenitsyn, and Osip Mandelstam. From this side of the Atlantic, it has printed translations of short stories by the Argentinian Jorge Luis Borges, and the poetry of such U.S. writers as E. E. Cummings, Marianne Moore, Wallace Stevens, and William Carlos Williams.

Neglected Writers. Frequently an issue will be devoted to the works of a single writer who the Weisses feel is important but neglected. In its 1945 Kafka issue, for example, QRL printed three stories then unobtainable in English. An issue devoted to British writers introduced work by Lawrence Durell long before he became well known.

The list of QRL contributers in the front-ranks of 19th and 20th century literature goes on and on: Henry Miller, Ralph Ellison, T.S. Eliot, James Dickey, Jean Paul Sartre, Ezra Pound, Friedrich Holderlin, Robert Lowell, Sylvia Plath, Paul Valery. It has been both among the first to present many of the significant writers of our time as well as the best work of those of established reputations.

The quarterly now has a circulation of between 1,600 and 2,500, and is read all over the world. As many foreign as American institutions subscribe to it. The price of an issue, triple in size to what it was when first published, is $2.50. The two retrospective issues--seven times the size of the original quarterly issues--will be $4 in paperback, $10 in hardcover.

The first of the two issues, the poetry volume, has just been published, while the fiction volume is expected out sometime in the fall.

CHAIRMAN NAMED

For United Fund Division. Audrey Short has been appointed chairman of the special gifts division of the 1974 Princeton Area United Community Fund drive.

Mrs. Short will head the special gifts division which is responsible for raising about 25 percent of the overall campaign goal, according to Fred Fields, campaign chairman.

Mrs. Short will appoint 22 husband-wife area captains who will supervise her teams that will be contacting the major contributors. The drive is scheduled to kick-off October 1 and will run through October 31. The Princeton Area United Fund consists of 21 member agencies serving Princeton and surrounding towns.

Audrey Short

Mrs. Short, president of Audrey Short, Inc. Real Estate, serves as a trustee of the Princeton Area United Fund and is a member of the budget committee. A resident of Princeton for more than 25 years, Mrs. Short is senior vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce and president of the Princeton Real Estate Group.

OFFICERS CHOSEN

For MSM Regional Council. The Middlesex-Somerset-Mercer Regional Study Council has elected officers to serve for the coming year.

They are: Henry S. Patterson II, of Elizabethtown Water Company, president; Bruce McClellan of the Lawrenceville School, vice president; Edward O. Cole of E. R. Squibb, vice president; C. McKim Norton of the Regional Plan Association, vice president; Barry B. Davall of the N. J. National Bank of Princeton, treasurer; Minot C. Morgan Jr., of the Institute for Advanced Study, secretary. John P. Moran of Princeton University and John M. Cooney of Rutgers University were elected to the Executive Committee.

Directors elected were Mrs. Carol Consalus of Hopewell Borough, Richard K. Greenfield of Mercer County Community College, John H. Keefe of FMC Corporation, James Kerney Jr., of the Trenton Times, and Raymond A. Bowers, architect.

Parallel with the Impact Planning Study now under way, the Regional Study Council is undertaking a study of the use of land in the M-S-M Region to be completed by the end of 1974.

This work will describe the Region through maps, slides and photographs in terms of its natural environment, its social and economic development and the effects of its recent growth.

A second phase will attempt to determine what guidelines are necessary and desirable to shape our Region's future, to prepare a program for regional planning, to recommend a process which could rally political and civic forces behind a regional plan, and to explore ways and means to finance the planning program and implementation process.

The Regional Study Council is a non-profit, tax-exempt citizens' research, planning, and educational organization formed in January, 1968. Its membership consists of business, professional, educational, civic and planning leaders from portions of the three counties lying approximately between Trenton and New Brunswick, and between the New Jersey Turnpike and the Sourland Mountains.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Booklet on Law Available. Who is responsible for family support?

What are the grounds for divorce in New Jersey?

Does a wife have the right to work outside the home and use the money she earns in any way she wishes?

Can a woman keep her out-of-wedlock child?

What is equal pay for equal work?

Are women employees entitled to a maternity leave when pregnant?

Can a woman obtain credit in her own name?

The answers to these and many other questions are now available in a booklet titled "Laws of Special Interest to Women in New Jersey"

The booklet, in which questions and answers are printed in both English and Spanish, covers the areas of marriage and divorce; a married woman and her property; social security; women and their children; women who work; and women as citizens. Single copies may be obtained by sending a full-length, stamped, self-addressed envolope, along with 50 cents (check, money order, stamps or coins) to: N.J. State Department of Community Affairs, c-o N.J. State Commission on Women, 363 West State Street, Trenton, N.J. 08625.

WHO WANTS IT?

Bicen. Drama. Anybody want an amphitheatre? Not West Windsor, certainly. Nor, it seems, Princeton.

Helen Chase, of the West Windsor Planning Board, has been at Township Committee and Borough Council in the past two weeks, peddling the idea that Princeton might like to be host to a Bicentennial drama called "In Freedom We'll Live," designed for a 2,500-seat amphitheatre and destined to run all summer, 1976, and even for five to ten years after that.

West Windsor has been tapped as the amphitheatre site by the Mercer County Park Commission. West Windsor residents want no part of it. Their mayor, William Stuart, thinks the site should be Princeton Battlefield Park, off Mercer Road in Princeton Township.

Not only is the site historically appropriate, but look, Mayor Stuart says silkily, at all those Princeton names on the sponsoring committee. Including James Sayen, chairman of the Mercer County Park Commission. Surely Princeton would love the drama, the traffic, the business?

"Township Committee is not favorably disposed to a 2,500-seat amphitheatre in Battlefield Park," Mayor Jay Bleiman told his Tuesday press conference. He did observe, however, that since the state owns the park, presumably it can do as it pleases there.

Mayor Bleiman thinks Palmer Stadium might be an acceptable place: it's accustomed to hordes of visitors, has parking, etc. It doesn't, of course, have lights for night use.

The stadium belongs to Princeton University. Leslie Vivian, who handles community relations for the University, told Mayor Bleiman the University would be willing to "listen," if the stadium is designated as a "fall-back position," the mayor reported.

THEFT REPORT

Cycle, Lounges, Calculator. A motorcycle, chaise lounges and calculator were among the items reported stolen last week by police.

An $800 Ossa motorcycle was stolen from the Princeton University student lot off Faculty Road. Police said that a chain link fence had been cut to remove the cycle, owned by Scott K. Root, 51 Moran Avenue.

Three chaise lounges valued at $35 each were taken from the pool area at Queenston Commons between 8:30 Thursday evening and noon the next day. Police said the area is fenced in.

A $320 electronic calculator was taken from the office of the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, 30-32 Nassau Street.

The theft was reported by Miss Miriam Reid. Police said that there were no signs of forced entry.

Two donation boxes in the front of St. Paul's Church on Nassau Street and a third in the rear of the church were opened with a bolt cutter last week, but police report they do not know how much money was in each. Also taken were three bronze candleholders.

The car of John Rathman, 47 N. Tulane Street, was forced open and its glove compartment ransacked,. Police said $10 was taken from a wallet. The car was parked on Palmer Square in front of the Nassau Inn.

Apartment Entered. Two men, whom police say are related, lost money when their apartment at 175 John Street was broken into.

Richard Edwards lost $50 in pennies in a jar and $5 from a bank. Buster Sandifer reported his black leather wallet containing $200 missing from his pants pocket. A screen was removed from a rear bedroom window to gain entry.

Cash Box Yields $62. A cash box inside an open safe at the Sherwin Williams paint store in the Princeton Shopping Center was emptied of $62 between noon Friday and 9:30 the next morning when the loss was discovered.

Manager Robert Seigman told police that a rear door to the stockroom had been left open during the day to allow air to circulate.

PEDESTRIAN HIT

...and Charged. Robert Serrell, 69, 39 Lovers Lane, was charged with failing to cross in a crosswalk after he was struck last week crossing Nassau Street near Washington Road.

Mr. Serrell was taken by the Princeton First Aid Squad to the Princeton Medical Center where he was treated for abrasions to the elbow and contusions of the left leg. A witness told police that the impact tossed the victim eight to ten feet in the air.

According to police, Mr. Serrell came from between two cars stopped in a line of traffic without warning into the path of a car operated by Carlton E. Quallo, 20, of Lawrence. Sgt. Thomas Procaccino investigated.

Night Swimming Barred?
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Did R. Donald Barr us from night swimming once again? Possibly, but he was not alone. He was ably abetted by the Recreation Committee. We cannot give you lights because Princeton nights are too chilly, they intimated.

However, "Fiat Lux" they said, and Lo! the paddle tennis courts had light so that many of these same people could play before dawn and after sunset in sub-freezing weather. Logical?

They have made additions to the pool area as they said they would do. However, instead of shuffle board, badminton, and volley ball etc., we are now greeted by a welcome mat full of oligarchal DONTS.

In these days of power shortages it would seem to be their duty to supply a cooling off spot for the people of the town that are so inclined to use it.

...Yes, there's trouble in Princeton City, and it starts with B, and rhymes with P, and stands for POOL....

If you're interested in night swimming please write or call the Recreation Committee, Princeton Recreation Department, Valley Road. 921-9480.

STUART ELLLERSTEIN

Medical Center Praised.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

Far too often environs of a community take for granted medical services rendered as an everyday happening. My hat goes off to the staff at Princeton Medical Center in their excellent care of me as a patient.

Although the hospital is not one of my favorite vacation spots, they made my stay most comfortable under the circumstances. It's hard to imagine that with the turnover that a hospital gets in the way of patients that the nurses day after day, hour after hour maintain their composure, and treat everyone as if they were just to serve them.

It almost got to the point, even as bad as I felt, that I would feel guilty to call for assistance for fear that they might be too busy elsewhere. It took a couple of days of consistent reassurance that this was not the case. The interesting thing about the reassurance is that they meant every word of it.

With this good feeling I have inside I honestly don't know who to commend for this cavalcade of professionals. Should it be Mr. Kaufman who for many years has been the head administrator, should it be Mrs. Freda who as supervisor of nurses has much to be proud of, or should it be the Miss Smith or Miss Jones who day after day comfort and care for the many faces before them.

Wherever the credit should belong they have my sincerest thank you for making my stay as comfortable as humaoly possible.

Workers Inconvenienced.
To the Editor of Town Topics:

As a worker in Princeton I am totally disgusted with the Buro's action of eliminating most 10 hour meters. I waste 1 hour a day by having to adjust my schedule to the shuttle bus. I do not think the working class should be inconvenienced like this for the sake of the shoppers. The working class makes this town what it is.

I will not spend any more money in Princeton until this situation is corrected.

Pharmacy Footnotes

by Mel Atlas, Reg. Pharm

The proper name for these is "ocular solar filters" and they are necessary to your eye health. You may call them "dark" or "sun" glasses. In recent years they have become a part of everyday life, and if your eyes are exposed to continuous sun, they will benefit from the shade which sun glasses can afford. If you wear glasses habitually, have your dark glasses ground to your prescription. Todays attractive frames can also add to your appearance as well as insure your comfort.

Does your pharmacist explain the doctors directions and point out things to do, or not to do, while using various medications? If not, then it's time you started using FORER PHARMACY, 160 Witherspoon, for your family's prescription needs. A pharmacist who has your complete confidence awaits you at Forer Pharmacy..Phone 921-7287.

TWO STILL TIED

For First In PBSL. Educational Testing Service and Cities Service Research are still deadlocked in a tie for first place in the Princeton Business Softball League after 11 weeks of play.

Cities Service crushed a hapless Ingersoll Rand team, 42-3, mathematically eliminating the latter from the playoffs. Ken Cichocki was the star for Cities Service, hitting 4-5 with two home runs. Mike Beninda and Jack Sheldon contributed a homer each, while Burt Anderson hit a perfect 5-5.

ETS, lacking some of its power hitters, eeked out a win over North American Phillips Lighting, 6-3, on the winning pitching and 2-2 hitting of Jerry Kramer. ETS's Pete Simoneli got the only four-bagger of the night.

The First National Bank of Princeton had to come from behind with four runs in the last half of the seventh inning to defeat a strong Forrestal bid, 8-7. Noteworthy is the fact that First National of Princeton had no home runs, while Forrestal's Tom Wunderlich had two. Wes Cawley displayed perfect 3-3 form at the plate, aided by Dave Tessien's 3-4 with 3 RBI's, and Tim Kearns and Nick Panicaro's matching 3-4 hitting made up the difference in the victory.

Strong hitting by John King (4-4 with a homer) and winning pitcher Russ Sinclair (3-3) led Geophysical Fluid Dynamics Labs to an 18-9 victory over American Cyanamid, giving GFDL a good shot at the playoff berth, while mathematically eliminating Cyanamid. Bob Moxim had 6 RBI's for the winners, and Ned Nichols contributed a 3-run homer for Cyanamid.

RCA(A)'s Ed Gudusky fulfilled the dream of every hitter as he hit a single, double, triple and a homer to complete a 4-5 hitting night while leading RCA(A) to a tight 18-15 defeat of National Computer Analysts. Murray Woods hit another round trip for RCA, as did NCA's Frank Digizepi and Tom Steinbunn. Ken Miller had a perfect 5-5 night for NCA.

McGraw Hill unleashed a 20-hit attack to squeeze by Firmenich, 10-9. Bob Pagano of Firmenich hit the only homer in the game, but Jim Morris's 4-4 and Bruce Beloven's 3-4 hitting were the margin of victory for McGraw-Hill.

Matching two for three hitting by Don DeCapio, Colin Petterorson, and Tony Rodde were the main ingredient in ERC's 7-5 win over Princeton Day School, although Rob Hoffman's homer for PDS left the outcome in doubt, until the end. Don Jablonski for ERC answered Hoffman's homer with one of his own, and the strong pitching of Bob Heinz cinched the victory. RCA(B) gave United Jersey Banks its seventh loss of the season in a 21-11 game which saw winning pitcher Phil Heyman and Al Triano both hit three safeties for four times at bat. Dick Morbee smacked a four bagger for UJB in a losing cause.

In the annual all-star game last Thursday night, McGraw-Hill's Dave Sands 3-run homer in the bottom of the ninth gave his team a 10-7 win. NAPLC's Stan Cygan was the winning pitcher in a game that saw McGraw-Hill's Bruce Belovin and Ang Vosti have perfect nights with 4-4 and 2-2 hitting, respectively, while United Jersey Banks' Harry Gooding gave the winners another home run.

The Standings with only four weeks left in the season are:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Cities Svc.	10	1	.909
ETS	10	1	.909
First National	9	2	.818

TWO MORE VICTORIES

For Nassau Swim Club. An exciting 158-150 victory over the Valley Club of Flemington last week and a 181-127 triumph over Ben Franklin of Lawrenceville earlier by the Nassau Swimming Club increased its record to 4-0.

In the Valley meet five double winners also swam on winning relay teams.

Susan Harris won the 8-u girls breaststroke and butterfly, and was on the 8-u girls freestyle relay; Abby Harris won the 10-u girls freestyle and backstroke, and was on the 10-u girls freestyle relay; Paul Sally won the 10-u boys butterfly and breaststroke, and was on the 10-u boys freestyle relay; Mary Bolster won the 14-u girls backstroke and individual medley and was on the 17-u girls freestyle relay; and Carrie Kidd won the 17-u girls butterfly and breaststroke and was on the 17-u girls freestyle relay.

Ann Healy was a double winner in the 12-u girls breaststroke and individual medley. Gerald Garvey won the 12-u boys backstroke and Steve Sally tied for first in the 12-u boys freestyle. Both boys were on the winning 12-u freestyle relay team. Jean Rosenbluth also won an individual event, the 14-u girls freestyle and swam on the winning 17-u girls freestyle relay team.

Freestyle relay teams which clinched the victory were 8-u girls, Susan Harris, Kate Burkman, Connie Betterton and Barb Pezdirtz; 10-u girls, Li Van Horn, Cathy Langridge, Beth Alberts and Abby Harris; 10-u boys, John Healy, Paul Sally, Paul Corshman and Paul Keaney; 12-u boys, Joel Harris, John Keaney, Gerald Garvey and Steve Sally, and 17-u girls, Carrie Kidd, Dorothy Dyson, Jean Rosenbluth and Mary Boleter.

Winners of two individual events in the Ben Franklin meet were Susan Harris, Mary Bolster, Marc Coutin, Charles Bolster and Paul Obrshman.. Capturing single events were Val Van Horn and Pierre Coutin, both in diving, Abby Harris, Paul Keaney and Tom Garvey.

MANY LAURELS WON

By Junior Tennis Players. Thirty juniors of the Princeton Community Tennis Program were bussed to the West Jersey Junior Tournament in Haddonfield and returned with many of the laurels.

One of the stars of the tournament was No. 6 seed Alan Aronovic, who carried off the 14 and under winners

SPORTS FANS! I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

Brought to you By John Bernard

Remember catcher Joe Pignatano?...He was in the majors in the late 1950s and early 1960s, and he was once involved in one of those believe-it-or-not episodes...It happened when he was at Ft. Worth in the minors in 1955...He came to bat in a game and hit a home run...But the other team protested he had batted out of order, so he was called out and his homer nullified...He was properly due up next, so he stepped back in the batter's box and--you guessed it--he hit a home run again...This one counted and, oddly enough, it landed in the exact same spot as the first one that didn't count!

Did you know that it was prize money from the sport of auto racing that helped start today's giant automobile companies?...It's a little known fact that many of the pioneer auto makers started out as race car drivers–before autos were mass produced—and they used the money and publicity they got from winning races to start the big auto manufacturing companies.

Which player would you say has been the greatest putter in the history of golf?...A panel of experts recently voted and they say that the best putter of all time was Horton Smith.

I bet you didn't know that a golfer is protected by the liability section of his Homeowner's insurance policy if he should hit someone with a golf ball.

PHARMACY TOPICS

by Joe Vitella

To repair aneurysms in blood vessels, especially near the brain, a neurosurgeon at the University of Minnesota uses an ordinary household glue from Japan. There it is also used to treat intestinal ruptures and liver lacerations.

Although the brain senses the pain of damage anywhere in the body, it has no pain sensation itself. Brain surgery is often performed while the patient is awake.

New safety rules for cribs are helpful to buyers. But if you're handing down an old one, use four-inch bumpers around the mattress to protect the baby. If mattress isn't tight, wedge in a towel to keep it in place.

The lowly lichen--actually a symbiotic combination of algae and fungus--is being used to test for air pollution. Seems pollution is the only thing that can damage it.

Government is becoming more stringent about medications we take. Manufacturers of over-the-counter preparations now must spell out the active ingredients in each product, and warn against overdosage.

We've always been fussy about the medications we sell. We care about your health.

MOONEY WINS AGAIN

Defeats Division Leader. Two things that Princeton Post 76 has been able to point to this year have been the pitching of its ace, John Mooney, and its ability to defeat the top teams in the Mercer County Legion League.

Mooney gave up 12 hits but spaced them out with the exception of one inning to defeat Three Seasons Friday, 7-3. It was only the fourth setback in 21 games for the losers, who had already clinched first place in the Southern Division. The win was Mooney's sixth against one loss.

Princeton collected 10 hits off loser Mike Pustay, and five of them were triples. Greg Caristensen drove in two runs for Princeton with a pair of triples as he had three hits in three at bats. Third baseman John Evans continued his hot hitting for the victors with two triples, driving in one run, while George Reynolds had the fifth triple.

Three Seasons scored all three of its runs in the third inning.

ENGINE CO. ADVANCED

In Little League. Engine Co. 1 strengthened its hold on first place in the PYBA Little League and lengthened its win streak to eight as it took a two-game lead over second place Post 76.

Against UAL 380 Peter Sharpless pitched a two-hitter and contributed a triple and single at the plate. Brent Robinson and Mike Thompson added two hits apiece as Engine Co. 1 won. Josh Miller doubled and Chris Jones singled for UAL's only hits.

Randy Rose struck out 11 and smashed two triples as Engine Co. 1 beat the Eagles, 8-2. Sharpless hit a home run.

Post 76 managed to retain second place despite a 27-1 trouncing by Roma Eterna. Pitcher Mark Adams struck out nine and slapped six hits for the winners. David Yim had two doubles, Gabe Sasso had three hits and John Kendall homered for Roma Eterna.

Chip Kleiber helped straighten Post 76 out in its next game, gathering four hits and striking out nine as the Post defeated the Elks, 16-7. Tom Lion singled and tripled; Sean Cavanaugh doubled twice and singled; Don Johnson doubled and tripled; and Terry Phox singled twice for the victors.

Tie for Third. Engine Co. 3 moved into a tie for third with victories over the Italian-American Sportsmen's Club and UAL 380. John Keaney's pitching, good glovework by Dave Blaxill and the hitting of Cliff Gibbons, Mike Miller and Dave Lewis contributed to No. 3's 11-10 defeat of IASC.

Eight innings were needed against UAL 380 before Keaney's hit drove in the winning run in a 6-5 game. Blaxill pitched six innings and was relieved by Keaney after Lamont Fletcher tied the game.

IASC maintained the third place tie by defeating UAL 380, 17-4. Bill Perna tripled and was the winning pitcher, and Gred Haemer and Norm Lewis singled for IASC. UAL's pitching was plagued by walks, and the offense was held to one hit, a single by Josh Miller.

In the battle to escape the cellar, the Elks defeated the Eagles, 10-7, as Chris Wallace hit three tiples and Chris Henkel had a single, double and triple.

PRINCETON TEAM THIRD

In State Swim Championships. Rob Helt led the Princeton Aquatic Association to a third-place finish in the N.J. State Swim Championships held Thursday and Friday at the Cranford Recreation Complex pool. The meet was sanctioned by the N.J. Amateur Athletic Association.

Helt won the men's 100-meter back stroke with a time of 1:04.4 and the 200-meter back stroke in 2:19.2. Twelve swimmers competed in the finals in the different events.

Andy Balster finished second in the men's 200-meter breaststroke with a time of 2:46.3 and second in the 100-meter breaststroke (1:15.0). Martha Kinney finished second in the 100 and 200 meter backstroke with times of 1:12.6 and 2:38.6.

Jim Bolster placed fourth in the men's 100-meter butterfly (1:05.0) and Peter Manieri captured a fourth place in the 100 meter breaststroke. His time: 1:15.9.

TOURNEY TO START

In Summer Lacrosse. The top four teams in the Princeton Summer Lacrosse League will start tournament play on Tuesday.

Present standings have the Mounties on top with a 4-0 record followed by Terps and Navy, both 3-2; Tigers, 2-2; Irish, 1-3; and Jays, 0-4. In games Thursday evening at Marquand Park, Tigers will oppose Irish and Jays versus Mounties.

PRINCETON LOSES, 2-1

In Babe Ruth Tournament. Princeton was eliminated from the Babe Ruth 13-Year Old Tournament Saturday when it was edged by Hamilton Americons, 2-1. The loss was the second for Princeton in the double elimination event.

Hamilton pitcher Rich DeMarco tossed a one-hitter as John Thompson singled home Princeton's only run in the first inning. Princeton hurler Keith Phox yielded only four singles, two by DeMarco. After Hamilton had tied the game in the first, it won the game in the fifth when an infield error allowed the victors to score again.

Phox struck out four, DeMarco eight. Princeton was guilty of two errors while DeMarco's teammates backed him with a perfect game in the field.

THORNE TAKES LEAD

In PYBA Ruth League. Thorne Pharmacy moved from second to first place in the PYBA Babe Ruth League by winning all three of its games last week. Thorne upset Tiger Garage, 6-5, and won two from PB & T by wide margins, to move a half game ahead of Tiger in the standings.

Thorne scored five runs in the last three innings to defeat the Garage. Aided by three hits from Bernie Noble, two of them doubles, two hits each by John Boccanfuso and Jim LaPlaca, and a triple by Mark Lovering, pitcher Dave Shillaber held the opposition hitless over the final three innings to pick up the win.

Paul Soderman hit safely three times. Scott Thompson and Paul Bruschi had two apiece, and Tony Opperman tripled for the losers.

A 16-hit attack by Thorne took care of Princeton Bank & Trust, 16-6. Shillaber and LaPlaca each had three hits, and Noble and Lovering tripled to lead the attack.

In the second game against PB & T, LaPlaca pitched a two-hitter and was backed up by 20 hits. LaPlaca and Shillaber had four hits; Noble and Lovering three; and Mike Boccanfuso two. Jon Silverman was the only loser to hit LaPlaca.

Grand Slammer. Tiger Garage rebounded to defeat PBA, 16-2, behind three-hit pitching by Opperman. The Garage scored 11 runs in the second inning, capped by a grand slam home run by Soderman. Dave Robinson, Soderman, Scott Thompson and Tom Miller each had three hits; Opperman had two doubles; and Dave Seagers had two hits for the winners.

Tom Ferguson, Tom Hagadorn and Jon Rosenthal had the only hits for PBA.

PLAYOFF NEEDED

In Jean McClean Tournament. An 18-hole playoff was held Friday at Springdale to determine the winner of the Jean McLean Memorial Tournament, and the team of Dolores Allaire-Jean Shillaber won with a net 69.

The tournament had ended in a tie after 36 holes between the Allaire-Shillaber team and the team of Nancy Herman and Rose Johnson. The tournament is a 36-hole, better ball of partners low net.

LAPIDUS TO COMPETE

In National Jr. Tennis Event. Jay Lapidus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lapidus, 149 Galbreath Drive, will play in three National Junior Tennis Tournaments to be held in St. Louis, Springfield, O., and Kalamazoo, Mich., where he will compete against the top junior players from the United States.

On the basis of his record last year when he was the top ranked player in New Jersey in his age division and his tournament record this year, Jay was invited recently to spend at week at Ursinus College with the top 16 and 18-year old Middle States junior tennis players. This group was designated as the Middle States Junior Davis Cup Squad.

Last week, Jay won the Haddonfield tournament, defeating Junior Gray in the finals, 6-3, 6-1. He had eliminated Richard Marks in the semis by the same score. In the quarter finals, he won a three-hour match in 100 degree heat against the top Nigerian Davis Cup player, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4.

ATTENTION BOWLERS

Tournament Scheduled. The Hightstown-East Windsor Jaycees are sponsoring a two-person team bowling tournament to be conducted on the weekends of August 17-18 and August 24-25 at the Hightstown Bowling Lanes.

The event will be a 100 per cent handicap tournament based on a 200 average using 1973-74 sanctioned averages. Entry blanks are now in all bowling establishments in the Hightstown and Trenton area. The entrance fee is $15 per team for three games of bowling. Prizes will be based on total team score plus handicap for the three game series.

The exact prize structure for the event will be determined by the number of entries in the tournament. If 96 teams enter, the top prize will be $150 for the winning team. More prize details are available on the entry blanks. The tournament is open to men and women.

Starting times will be at 1, 4, and 7 p.m. on each date. Each entry should specify a preference of starting time and date. Preferences will be honored in accordance with the earliest post mark.

Entries for the August 17-18 dates must be postmarked by Midnight August 12; entries for the August 24-25 dates must be postmarked by Midnight August 19. Entries should be mailed to the Hightstown-East Windsor Jaycees, P.O. Box 45, Hightstown, N.J. or to Mr. Lee Stamp, 732 Centre Street, Trenton, N.J.

All proceeds from the tournament will go to support the Hightstown-East Windsor Jaycees Career Opportunity Grant (COG) Vocational Scholarship program.

Contemporary Montgomery Rancher

Superior craftsmenship and custom design are evident throughout this maintenance free cedar and brick rancher situated on two plus acres overlooking Bedens Brook Valley. The massive stone fireplace in the living room is matched in beauty only by the panoramic view from the Anderson windows of the valley below. The family room, convenient to the kitchen and out-of-doors, has its own fireplace and rustic atmosphere generated by the aged Vermont board interior. The three big bedrooms including the master suite are all beautified by wide pegged floors, as is the whole house. Central air-conditioning, central vacuum, two-car garage, full basement, and every tasteful convenience in an outstanding location. $73,900

Between the Golf Course and the Millpond

Imagine yourself relaxing on a wintery day with a crackling fire in the massive fireplace of this spacious four bedroom colonial just a short distance from Pike Brook Country Club and a bicycle ride away from the scenic Bridgepoint Millpond. Cheerful formal living room, elegant slate foyer, and dining room, rustic family room and kitchen, great master suite and closets galore. Besides all of this count on a friendly Montgomery neighborhood where you can enjoy the best in country living. $68,900
Seventy five percent mortgage available to the qualified buyer.

From the Terrace in Pine Knoll

Few homes near Greenacres Country Club offer so much in Colonial charm and variety as this newly listed two story colonial in Pine Knoll. From the plushy carpeted sunken living room to the elegant dining room with wide angle bay window, one can sense a home with great possibilities for entertaining. Yet, from the neatly decorated eat-in kitchen to the convenient open family room with raised hearth and exceptional flagstone and brick terrace there is a sense of easy living in the woods. Upstairs are four comfortable bedrooms including a master with two built-in walk-in cedar closets. Perhaps you better see it soon!

$62,500

Wildflowers

Ever dream of living in the country in an unusual setting where wildflower gardens pick up your spirits and fresh vegetable gardens bring you closer to nature? We've just listed a unique home in Montgomery with four bedrooms, a log burning fireplace in the living room, an eat-in country kitchen, and a bright cheertul dining room or study, all surrounded by wildflowers; like ladyslippers, jack-in-the-pulpits, solomon's seal, natural ferns. Need we tell you, it also has an in-ground swimming pool and a pool playhouse with fireplace that could be a neat place for the kids. $59,000

The Cabin Within a House

Our newest listing in West Windsor near the high school has got to be the most unique Dutch Colonial that you've ever seen. Rustic atmosphere pervades from the massive stone fireplace in the beamed living room, through an elegant colonial dining room, and into a wide plank panelled eat-in kitchen with its own fireplace for warmth. There are three comfortable spacious bedrooms, in all and two full baths. As if this weren't enough at this price the big surprise is a log cabin family room of hand sawn logs focused upon a massive stone fireplace. See it before the open house. $61,000

Princeton Borough Cottage

Right in the heart of Princeton, we have just listed this darling quaint stucco cottage that has all kinds of possibilities. Upstairs, is a large three bedroom apartment with formal living room, dining room, kitchen, and raised deck or sunporch. Downstairs, is a small office room and three car garage where some say a woodworker used to practice his craft. If you're looking for something unusual near the middle of town for some special use, then you should give us a call soon $59,000

Victorian Valentine

This lovely old yellow house, circa 1875, was the original Cottage Club and was moved to its present site on Library Place in 1905.

The red carpeted center hall opens on one side to a library with fireplace and shuttered windows, and on the other to a large dining room with another fireplace and intricate moldings. The living room is light and airy and overlooks the garden. There is a superb new eat-in kitchen, an elegant powder room and bright spotless laundry room.

Upstairs the master bedroom, bath and very large dressing room have closets galore. There are 2 other pretty bedrooms and a tiled bath.

The carpeted third floor has 2 bedrooms, a bath and a rainy day playroom plus loads of storage. There is a back stair.

This special house has been lovingly and meticulously restored, is offered at $169,000.

Dog lovers attention: The back yard is fenced!

Gold Medallion Total Electric Living

You wouldn't buy carpeting without comparing quality and price per square foot.

Why not the same comparison when you buy a house?

Did you know that our cluster house costs less per square foot?

Our cluster house gives you more actual living space and more modern living conveniences than a lot of single homes. For a lot less money. Hard to believe? It's even harder when you see the basement. It's big.

Did you ever think of an entry court as an outdoor room?

That's the way we want you to think of ours. It's large enough for small dinner parties. And private enough to have fun without disturbing your neighbors.

Would you like to put together your own floor plan?

Our five floor plans make it easy to think you're getting a custom house. All our plans are different and they all have good one-floor traffic flow. You can pick a plan with two or three bedrooms. With one or two baths. And with a fireplace or without a fireplace.

Is central air conditioning a must?

We consider anything that makes your living more enjoyable a must. That includes central air conditioning. A kitchen complete with self-cleaning range and range hood, refrigerator-freezer, dishwasher and disposal. And more. Baths with shiny ceramic tile around the tub and shower, and a handsome vanette. And lots and lots of closet space.

Would you like a house in the center of everything?

Our cluster houses are within reach of everything. Lighted bicycle paths, play areas and a planned swimming pool are right outside your door. The beautiful old restored houses and shops of Mount Holly are only four blocks away. And schools and good shopping centers within walking distance.

The cluster house. It measures up and beyond.

Directions: I-295 to 541 Exit or New Jersey Turnpike to Exit 5 (Mount Holly 541). 2 miles east on 41 to 4th traffic light, turn right on Levis Drive to Regent's Park. Samples open daily 11-7. Phone 609-261-1146.
